The American Jewish Year Book

Edited by CYRUS ADLER

The first Year Book was issued in September, 1899, for the year 5660 (1899-1900). Among its contents are the following:

The Jews of Europe, by Joseph Jacobs.
Directory of National Organizations.
Directory of Local Organizations.
A List of Jewish Periodicals published in the United States.

(PRICE, POSTPAID, 75 CENTS.)

The following Year Book, for 5661 (1900-1901), contains a corrected and more detailed list of local Jewish organizations of the country. This feature makes it a most valuable reference book of Jewish institutions, religious, social, philanthropic, and educational. It includes also the following:

Judaism in France, by Louis G. Lévy.
The Alliance Israélite Universelle, by Jacques Bigart.
Directory of National Organizations.
Biographical Sketches of Jews who have served in Congress.
Jewish Soldiers and Sailors who served in the Spanish-American War.

(PRICE, POSTPAID, $1.00.)
In the Year Book for 5662 (1901-1902) special stress is laid on the Roumanian Jewish question, referring to which there are two articles by Dr. E. Schwarzfeld, Secretary of the Jewish Colonization Association. The first is an historical survey, showing the claims of the Jews of Roumania to be regarded as Roumanians by virtue of their birth, length of residence, and identification with the interests of the country. The second treats of the legal enactments against Jews.

The Roumanian Jews in America are discussed by D. M. Hermalin.

Other contributions are:

A list of Hebrew and Jewish works of the past year, compiled by Israel Abrahams.

A statistical summary of Jewish organizations in the States.

A review of the year.

Records of Jewish events.

Interesting data relating to Jews.

(Price, postpaid, 75 cents.)

The following extracts are taken from a number of reviews:

"Charming is, indeed, the word which one keeps repeating to oneself throughout. * * * * It is a whimsical, wayward, womanly book, saturated with the charm of the Ghetto life which Miss Wolfenstein loves best in the world."—I. ZANGWILL, Jewish Chronicle, London.

"For many reasons this book is recommended earnestly and conspicuously here to our readers. In the first place it is splendidly written. The authoress is to be congratulated on her beautiful, simple, effective style. * * * The book is especially valuable because of its possibilities as a destroyer of prejudice—of race prejudice, the most contemptible and harmful of distorted human passions. * * * Skilfully and sympathetically she describes the types that mingle in the Ghetto. * * * Humor and pathos, real literary genius, and a broad, tolerant view of a hideous wrong, distinguish this book * * * ."—Journal, New York.

"... Those who care less for prejudice than for pure literature, noble and simple thoughts, quiet but poignant emotions, insight at once tender and keen, and a combination of breadth with energy of mind such as is seldom found in our self-seeking civilization—such readers will read her little volume until they know it by heart. After all, it is not so much matter whether it were written about Jews, Hindoos or Scandinavians; it is concerned with human beings, and you cannot know its contents without becoming more human.—Julian Hawthorne, North American, Philadelphia.

"... The charming work in letters of Miss Martha Wolfenstein has reached out to answering sympathies and has won attention and praise by its simplicity, directness, and clear portrayal of a picturesque life. * * * * I predict for 'Idyls of the Gass' the favor of many readers who grow tired of conventional writing, and who find in character well realized and subtly chosen a foil for too abundant romance. It is more than—a promising first book, it is a distinct performance.—Harrison S. Morris, Book News.

"... She has drawn us into her debt by crystallizing in abiding and charming form countless floating memories over which Jewry may smile as well as sigh.'—Emma Wolf, Jewish Comment.

"It is all so simple and primitive, and yet so subtly interwoven, this detailed picture of an alien life, that there is no single central thought upon which the critic may lay a triumphant finger and say, herein lies the essence of the book; it is not a volume to be dissected and weighed and analyzed, part by part, but rather one to be read and enjoyed, slowly and tranquilly, in its mingled humor and pathos and essential truth; while at the same time it quietly and unobtrusively teaches a useful lesson in charity and human kindness."—Commercial Advertiser, New York.

"The novelist nowadays is often a contributor to the budding science of sociology. Besides the interest of his plot he has often information to give as to modes of life and thought of out-of-the-way communities. These 'Idyls of the Gass' subserve this purpose. * * * In such a book as this it is the atmosphere that counts, and Miss Wolfenstein has succeeded in giving the atmosphere of the old Jewish life with remarkable success."—Literary Digest.

CHAPTERS ON JEWISH LITERATURE.—By Israel Abrahams. 275 pp. $1.25.

"The author has performed his task with admirable taste and judgment. He has written a primer of Jewish literature, it is true, an elementary manual, so to speak, but it is agreeably free from the faults of abruptness and fragmentariness so common to that class of booklets... It is not a mere bibliography, nor is it a collection of names and works; but a sketch in outline, warmed by the author's sympathetic treatment and enriched by his suggestive genius."—Jewish Messenger.

FICTION

STRANGERS AT THE GATE. Tales of Russian Jewry.—By Samuel Gordon. 458 pp. $1.50.

". . . His great merit is the admirable style of his book, the spirited description, the clearness and breadth of his method, and the absolute confidence with which he presents his arguments."—Dr. A. S. Isaacs, Baltimore Sun.

IDYLS OF THE GASS.—By Martha Wolfenstein. 295 pp. $1.25.

"Charming is, indeed, the word which one keeps repeating to oneself throughout . . . It is not a novel, nor is it a set of short stories, but a blend of both eked out even, à la Thackeray, with snatches of essays, in which the writer wears her heart upon her leaves. It is a whimsical, wayward, womanly book, saturated with the charm of the Ghetto life which Miss Wolfenstein loves best in the world."—I. Zangwill, Jewish Chronicle, London.
SONS OF THE COVENANT.—By Samuel Gordon. Illustrated. 500 pp. $1.50.

"A charming story, attractive not alone for its healthful, invigorating tone, but an indefinable spiritual quality that stamps the author as full of promise."—Jewish Messenger.

UNDER THE EAGLE’S WING.—By Sara Miller. Illustrated. 229 pp. 75 cents.

"It is a story of the days of Maimonides... The author is to be commended for her book, that abounds in stirring incidents and is written with considerable ability."—Jewish Messenger.

THEY THAT WALK IN DARKNESS. Ghetto Tragedies.—By I. Zangwill. 486 pp. $1.50. Sold to Members only.

"While the tragic issue of each of these remarkable stories is inevitable, they are illumined by flashes of fancy, satire, irony, and humor. No reader who is not blinded by prejudice will rise from the perusal of this engrossing volume without an enhanced sense of compassion for, and admiration of, the singular race of whose traits and temperament Mr. Zangwill is perhaps the most gifted interpreter."—Spectator, London.

LOST PRINCE ALMON.—By Louis Pendleton. Illustrated. 218 pp. 75 cents.

"It is a charmingly written story of the little Prince Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, whom the Prince Jehoiada had rescued from the clutches of Athaliah. Our Sunday-school literature is so extremely poor that we hail this volume with particular delight, and we predict that it will soon be one of the most popular gift books for Jewish children."—Jewish Voice.

DREAMERS OF THE GHETTO.—By I. Zangwill. 537 pp. $1.50. Sold to Members only.

"With marvelous industry, and with no small amount of erudition, he has packed together into the scenes dealing with Uriel Acosta, Sabbatai Zevi, Spinoza, the Baal Shem, Maimon, Heine, Lassalle, and Beaconsfield, just those incidents and sayings of their careers which bring out most clearly their Jewish aspects."—Joseph Jacobs, Bookman.

IN THE PALE. Stories and Legends of the Russian Jews.—By Henry Iliowizi. 367 pp. $1.25.

"Henry Iliowizi... is a master of both humor and pathos, as is shown in his book of stories and legends entitled ‘In the Pale.’"—Sunday-School Times.

CHILDREN OF THE GHETTO.—By I. Zangwill. 2 vols. 451 pp., 325 pp. $2.50.

"Nowhere else have been given us more realistic pictures of the shabbiness, the unwholesomeness, the close-packed human misery, the squalor, the vulgarity, the sharp struggle in the mean competition of life in the East End of London... [But] there is a world of poetry, of dreams, of imagination, of high calling, of intellectual subtlety, even, in which sordid London, not Jewish, has no part nor lot."—Charles Dudley Warner, Harper’s Magazine.
RABBI AND PRIEST.—By MILTON GOLDSMITH. 314 pp. $1.00.

"The author has attempted to depict faithfully the customs and practices of the Russian people and government in connection with the Jewish population of that country. The book is a strong and well-written story."
—Public Opinion.

THINK AND THANK.—By S. W. COOPER. Illustrated. 120 pp. 50 cents.

"Sir Moses Montefiore is the hero of this story. . . . 'Think and Thank' will please boys, and it will be found popular in Sunday-school libraries."
—New York Herald.

VOEGELE'S MARRIAGE AND OTHER TALES.—By LOUIS SCHNABEL. 83 pp. Paper. 25 cents. (Special Series No. 2.)

"'The False Turn' is a charming little sketch, and the humor of it very delicate and amusing. 'Voegele's Marriage' I find also very artistic and interesting."
—EEmma Lazarus.
