LIST OF FEDERATIONS FOR PHILANTHROPIC WORK, 1929

In 1929 a total of 52 communities reported the existence of 53 city federations for the support of philanthropic work¹; New York City has two such bodies, one for the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, the other for Brooklyn. Of the 53 federations, 34, over 60%, are members of community chests, while the remaining 19 obtain their revenues directly from the Jewish public.

During 1929, 52 of the federations disbursed a total of $15,300,147. Of this amount, $11,606,736, a little over 75%, was disbursed by the 19 independent federations, and $3,639,411 by the 33 which are members of community chests.

In 1929, these 52 federations had a total of 465 constituent societies.

It is interesting to note that two Jewish federations exist in Canada. Both are called Federation of Jewish Philanthropy; one is in Montreal, the other in Toronto. The Montreal federation supports 15 local societies; the Toronto organization supports 13 local and 2 extra-local societies. The former disbursed in 1929 a total of $329,017; the latter, $117,778. Both are independent federations.

In the following table the independent federations are indicated by an asterisk (*).
