PUBLICATIONS DIVISION

REPORT FOR FEBRUARY 1957

I. EVENTS AND PROBLEMS

Nothing new.

II. ACTIVITIES

At the request of the Foreign Affairs Department, and as a first step in planning AJC's participation in the tenth anniversary of the UN Declaration of Human Rights (1957-58), a prospectus of media activities which might be undertaken — preferably in concert with other organizations — was drawn up and presented to the Committee on International Organizations on January 29. The Committee, at its previous meeting, had received from this Division a report on AJC's human rights publications and other media efforts in the past. On the basis of these two meetings, plus conferences with the Committee chairman, a tentative plan has been drafted for further consideration by staff and other appropriate lay committees, including the Mass Media Education Committee.

Discussions also were held with representatives of the Conference Group and the Woman's Division of the Methodist Church to explore the possibility of issuing a new version of Your ... Your Town ... Your World ... and Human Rights, again under joint sponsorship, as a basic community-action handbook for the anniversary celebration. These discussions are continuing.
During the month a tentative schedule of 1957 publications was completed.

II. ACTIVITIES

1. Lamp Unto My Feet program presented a dramatization of Selma Hirsh's "The Fears Men Live By" on Sunday, February 10, 1957, CBS-TV, Channel 2, 10:00-10:30 A.M. Following the dramatization, Dr. Lyman Bryson, special consultant on educational programs, interviewed Dr. Morris N. Kertzer.

2. The Open Mind panel discussion of February 17, 1957 (WRCA-TV, Channel 4, 12:30-1:00 P.M.) dealt with civil rights progress during the past year. Panelists were Irving M. Engel, President of the AJC; Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP; and Father John LaFarge, Editor Emeritus of America. The Fund for the Republic has requested a kinescope of the program for consideration of a Robert Sherwood Award.

3. At the suggestion of the Director of the Division, Dorothy Gordon's N. Y. Times Youth Forum devoted a program to the discussion of youth's reaction to desegregation. The program was filmed in Louisville, Ky. and previewed in New York on February 6. It was shown on TV on February 17 and rebroadcast on radio February 23.

We also cooperated on the February 24 N.Y. Times Youth Forum program, "How Can Peace Be Achieved in the Middle East?" Students from Vassar, Harvard, Barnard and Manhattan participated.
Dorothy Gordon has indicated a willingness to plan a program based on our 50th Anniversary theme. It is scheduled for April 14. We have also been asked to suggest a guest for this program.

4. CBS "Invitation to Learning," an interview program based on the great classics, is considering Judge Proskauer as a guest on the program dealing with the Holmes-Pollock letters.

5. WOR-TV has indicated an interest in our "Unfinished Business - USA" human relations film series. Expect to complete plans for the series in short time.

6. Submitted data on Judge Proskauer to NBC for consideration of his appearance on "Elder Wiseman" interview program.

7. Furnished script writer with background material for "Eternal Light" program of March 24, based on episode in life of Louis Marshall over the NBC radio network.

8. Made final arrangements with Paul Shyre for preparation of drama reading to be presented in connection with our 50th Anniversary Observance.

9. Submitted to CBS outline of Passover TV dramatization based on life of Edward Rosewater, Lincoln's telegrapher, for presentation in connection with 50th Anniversary.

10. Attempting to place intermission guest on Sunday Philharmonic radio concert.

12. Trying to interest CBS in presenting a review of civil rights for 1956 on the "Camera Three" program.

13. Supplied material on prejudice to WOR-TV's World We Want series on Roots of Prejudice.

15. Met with staff member of Bill Leonard's radio ("This is New York") and TV ("Eye on New York") programs. Have promised us that we may place a guest on each of these programs in connection with the 50th Anniversary.

16. Director of the Division will be a participant in the panel discussion on religious TV at the Westinghouse Public Service Programming Conference taking place in Boston on February 27, 28 and 29.

17. Selected and edited film and wrote script for NBC's television program, "Open Mind."

III. ORGANIZATIONAL AND STAFF WORK

1. Met with Selma Hirsh, Morris Kertzer to discuss final plans for Dr. Kertzer's interview on "Lamp Unto My Feet" program of February 10.

2. Met with Director of Film Division to discuss TV promotion of "The Princess in the Tower."

3. Addressed Mass Media Education Committee Meeting of February 13 on Radio and TV activities in connection with 50th Anniversary.

4. Met with Irving M. Engel to discuss panel discussion in "Open Mind" program.

5. Obtained excerpt from Walter Winchell broadcast script for Director of Press Relations.
II. ACTIVITIES

1. For the past two months the Radio and Television Section has been concerned mainly with programs to commemorate the American Jewish Committee's 50th Anniversary. The following programs were presented in connection with that event:

   1. On Sunday, April 14, 1957, 2:00 - 3:30 P.M., the Columbia Broadcasting System presented "Ready, Mr. Rosewater?" over CBS-TV (Channel 2). This dramatization was based on the life of Edward Rosewater of Omaha, Nebraska, one of the founders of the American Jewish Committee. As President Lincoln's telegrapher, Rosewater had the distinction of having flashed the Emancipation Proclamation over the wires to the world. The script was written by Virginia Mazer.

      On Sunday, April 14, at the 50th Anniversary luncheon session, AJC presented a citation of merit to CBS in recognition of its distinguished Public Service programming. Richard Salant, Vice-President of CBS, was present to receive the award.

   2. At the AJC's Half-Century Banquet on Saturday, April 13, Betty Field, Conrad Nagel, Basil Rathbone and Staats Cotsworth participated in a dramatic reading "I Hear America Singing," adapted and directed by Paul Shyre and based on a script by Joseph Wershba.

3. At the opening dinner of the 50th Anniversary Observance on Wednesday evening, April 10, we presented "Champion of Liberty" by Sylvia Berger, a dramatic tribute to Louis Marshall, the AJC's second President. The script was adapted from a program on the Jewish Theological Seminary's "Eternal Light" series, presented on March 24 in honor of the AJC's 50th Anniversary. We made suggestions and supplied background material to the writer.

4. The Very Reverend James A. Pike, Dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City, invited Judge Joseph M. Proskauer to be his guest on the Dean Pike program of Sunday, April 7, 1957.

Dean Pike, his daughter, Cathy, and Judge Proskauer discussed "The Role of the Jew in American Life."

The program was telecast over the ABC-TV network (Channel 7) 5:00-5:30 PM New York time.

5. "Unfinished Business, U.S.A.", a film series dealing with human relations, is being televised for a 13-week period, Sundays from 1:00-1:30 P.M. by WOR-TV (New York, Channel 9) in cooperation with the American Jewish Committee. The first program was presented on April 7. Raymond Massey is serving as host for the series.

The programs feature one or two of the most important effective films in the field of human relations.

6. Edwin J. Lukas appeared on the Barry Gray program,
Tuesday, April 9, to discuss AJC's 50th Anniversary and the area of civil rights.

7. On Tuesday, March 26, 1957, 9:30-10:00 P.M., the "New World A'Comin radio program (Station WMCA) presented "You Hold the Key," the program in AJC's very successful "The People Take the Lead" radio series which dramatizes the meaning of the international declaration of human rights.

The presentation was entitled "Forty Minutes by Train."

8. On April 17, from 11:45 P.M.-12 Midnight, "Tonight," NBC-TV Network program, televised a Passover Seder from Rabbi Morris Kertzer's home. Dr. Kertzer's entire family participated.

9. Radio coverage of the 50th Anniversary included the following:
   b. "So They Say" CBS - Dag Hammarskjold's speech.
   c. NBC - Dag Hammarskjold's speech.

2. Other work of the Section for March and April included:
1. Northwestern University Reviewing Stand interested in our suggestion that they schedule a panel discussion on civil rights. At their suggestion, we submitted a list of questions which could serve as the basis for the discussion and a suggested list of qualified participants.

2. Participated in a panel discussion on religious broadcasting at the Westinghouse Conference on Public Service Programming in Boston.

4. Supplied the Division Against Discrimination of the New Jersey Department of Education, Newark, with sets of "The People Take the Lead" recordings and our 8 TV spot announcements.

5. Supplied JDA with Bund and Father Coughlin recordings for AJC 50th Anniversary script.

7. Submitted proposal for development of a program on scientific study of prejudice to Johns Hopkins Science Review TV series.

8. Supplied publisher of Behrman House with material on films and television re proposed publication of our TV Handbook.

9. Interested NBC-TV "Home" Show to schedule demonstration of Passover foods.

10. Attempting to place five girls from UCLA's Panel of Americans on "Tonight" program.

11. "Home" Show indicated interest in interview of Abba Eban and Mrs. Eban in celebration of Israel's 9th Birthday.

12. Meeting with Rabbi Hiat to discuss 1957 Rabbinical TV workshop.

13. Obtained tickets for CCRM affair.
